TELEPHONE SERVICE

There was an increase of 2,500,000 telephone connections and 300,000 recorded messages, during the year.

This increase in telephone traffic is primarily due to the unusual war conditions.

There are 12 remaining precincts in Brooklyn and 3 in Queens without either a flashlight or signal system, namely—151, 152, 155, 157, 158, 159, 162, 166, 168, 171, 173, 174, 279, 283, 285.

ANNUAL REPORT OF

BOILER SQUAD

The Boiler Squad is empowered by law to inspect and subject all steam boilers carrying over ten pounds of steam to the square inch to a hydrostatic test once a year, and to examine and qualify engineers and firemen to operate them; also to examine applicants for a certificate of qualification to operate ice machines.

The force of the Boiler Squad consists of one (1) Acting Sergeant, fifteen (15) Patrolmen, two (2) civilian Boiler Inspectors, eight (8) horse drawn vehicles and one (1) automobile, eight (8) civilian drivers and one (1) civilian chauffeur under open contract with the Police Department, all under the command of a Lieutenant.

Two members of the uniformed force, who are practical engineers, are assigned to examine applicants for engineers' and firemen's certificates, and for certificates of qualification to operate ice machines, and to hear and determine charges preferred against engineers and firemen for neglect of duty. There are nine (9) Boiler Inspectors, seven (7) of whom are members of the uniformed force.
